

Do you want to become a member of Freedom Studios Youth Theatre?

11 – 19 years old and passionate about the performing arts?

Or never tried theatre before but fancy giving it a go?

Then good news, Freedom Studios Youth Theatre is open to new members!

Youth Theatre offers supportive and creative sessions where young people can come together, make friends and acquire all the necessary skills to make great theatre.

Join us and work with professional actors, writers and directors, to make theatre about the subjects you are most passionate about.

There is no fee to join FSYT but you must reserve a place! Please fill in a registration form and return it to Youth Theatre Director, Natalie Quatermass. If you have any questions you can call Natalie on 01274 730077 or email natalie@freedomstudios.co.uk

Spring and Summer Term 2019

2019 is a very exciting term for Freedom Studios!

Freedom Studios is moving to Kala Sangam! We are going to have an office there and use their theatre space for youth theatre!

Regular Saturday Youth Theatre groups are going to be starting again in January! There are now going to be 2 groups on a Saturday and they are open to anyone.

We are going to have a FSYT Relaunch Celebration on Saturday 26th Jan, 10.30am at Kala Sangam. Here, all FSYT members, family and friends will be invited to come and celebrate with us.

The FSYT Ambassadors are going to help organise and run the relaunch event and so will meet on Saturday the 19th January.

Freedom Studios' next professional production has been announced! We are producing Black Teeth and A Brilliant Smile; a new drama based on the life the Bradford playwright, Angela Dunbar. The youth theatre will be creating their own performances also inspired by this story.
